IRON RELEASE 2010 REGULAR SEASON SCHEDULE

MILWAUKEE – In cooperation with the Arena Football One league office and the Bradley Center, the Milwaukee Iron have released the 2010 Arena Football One regular season schedule.

The Iron will play host to legendary AFL teams such as Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, Iowa, Orlando, Tampa Bay and Utah and the 2009 ArenaCup Champion Spokane Shock. Led by new head coach Bob Landsee and the addition of the world’s most talented arena football players and coaches, the Milwaukee Iron begin their quest to bring home an arena football championship to Milwaukee.

The Iron will begin their Arena Football One inaugural season in Spokane, WA with the marquee AF1 kickoff game on Friday, April 2, the first league game of the season, against the Spokane Shock. The Iron will begin their regular season home schedule with a game against Midwest Divisional rival the Iowa Barnstormers on April 16, followed by another home game against the Tampa Bay Storm on April 24.
